GRAND COMMANDERY OF KNIGHTS TEMPLARS
and the Appendant Orders of Massachusetts and Rhode Island
Organized 1805
CHARLES R. HUNT
Grand Commander
30 Arnold Place, New Bedford, Mass.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 2.
Series 1923-1924.

Office of the Right Eminent Grand Commander,
New Bedford, Mass., October 30, 1923.

The following sentiment has been prepared by the Committee on Christmas Observance of the Grand Encampment of the United States of America:

To Sir LEONIDAS PERRY NEWBY, Most Eminent Grand Master:

"The Nations of the World are again at peace, physically:

"Of old the Templars battled for worldly conquest, but with a vision and ideal of spiritual peace and uplift for humanity. Today the hosts of Templary are united in an earnest endeavor to advance the attainment of the high ideals of spiritual growth and development among mankind, and 'for the advent of that glorious day' when 'the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains'; When 'swords shall be beaten into plowshares and spears into pruning hooks'; when 'nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more'; when the reign of the Blessed Emanuel, the Prince of Peace, the Great Captain of our Salvation, shall become universal and eternal.

"To you, as the temporal leader of the Templar Hosts of the United States, we offer our felicitations upon the marked success of your work for the past year, 'hoping ever and praying always' for the blessings of our Divine Leader, upon you and those near and dear to you. May the peace of our Great Master be with you always."

THE GRAND MASTER SENDS THE FOLLOWING RESPONSE:

"Sir Knights:

"We recognize the fact that the ancient Templar fought for conquest; it was, however, for the purpose of recovering from the enemies of the Christian Religion, the Holy Sepulchre, that had contained the body of the Crucified Saviour, the most sacred spot in all Christendom, and by their heroic efforts and by deeds of charity and pure beneficence, the foundation was laid upon which to build the modern Order of Christian Knighthood.

"While as a Military Organization they fought for the right as God had given them to know the right, we as a Militant Organization should wage as vigorous spiritual warfare for the right as they did a physical one.

"The days of Chivalry are past and gone, but the memory of those who gave our Order character in the past, should be enshrined in the hearts of all true and courteous Knights of the Temple.

"Hoping as we do that we as Knights Templar may never again be called upon to draw our swords in the defense of the true and undefiled religion as did our ancient prototypes, but we must ever remember that should we ever be called upon to draw our swords in a religious cause we must give preference to the Christian Religion. We should also remember that according to the tenets of our Order, physical warfare is never justifiable except as a last resort, and that it is our duty individually and collectively to give the full weight of our influence and be a potent factor in bringing about peace on earth and good will among men.

"I have a due appreciation of your reference to the work of the Grand Master; as service is one of the cardinal principles of our Order and is in harmony with the teaching of Him Who as the Evangel of Christianity gave a message of life and love to mankind.

"One of His last statements to His disciples was 'He that is the greatest among you shall be as the younger and he that is the chief, as he that serveth.'

"With this thought in mind I am constrained to repeat the words of one of my illustrious predecessors of the long ago: 'Comrades together. The prestige of the past, the power of the present and the promise of the future, may well inspire us to continue loyal, loving service for our cherished Order: it is one of the world's mightiest forces to translate the truth of the Christian message into mutual helpfulness and universal brotherhood.'

"We should ever remember, that one of the last messages that He, Whom we Serve, gave to His disciples was:

" 'A new Commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another, as I have loved you; if ye love Me keep My Commandments.' He also said, 'I have spoken unto you, that My joy might remain in you and that your joy may be full.'

"The injunction of your Grand Master is that in order that 'Your joy may be full,' that you keep the Commandments of Him Who shed His blood for the redemption of the world, that in memory of Him that the membership of the several Commanderies throughout the Jurisdiction of the Grand Encampment, will assemble in your respective Asylums on the Glad Christmas Day, and rededicate your lives to Loyalty, Service, Love and Charity.

Yours in the faith,

LEONIDAS PERRY NEWBY,
Grand Master."

This Order will be borne upon the notice of the stated Conclave next preceding December 25
A. D. 1923, A. O. 805, and will be read at the head of each Commandery at said Conclave.

Witness under my hand and the seal of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templars and the Appendant Orders of Massachusetts and Rhode Island this thirtieth day of October, A. D.
1923, A. O. 805.

CHARLES R. HUNT,
Grand Commander.

Special Notice

The Annual Inspection of Boston Commandery will take place, Wednesday evening, March 19, 1924.

Please reserve this date as it is very important that our Commandery should go over the top in order to have the highest mark possible. This can only be obtained by constant and hard work of the officers and Sir Knights to procure a large attendance.

Let every Sir Knight do his best to accomplish this result. Will you help us?

GEORGE T. WILEY,
Commander.

THE BUSINESS OF THE CONCLAVE
will be transacted at 5.00 o'clock P. M.

Work: Orders of the Red Cross and Malta

Entitled to the Orders:

COMP. RALPH DAVIS JOSLIN
COMP. RALPH EDGAR JOSLIN
COMP. GEORGE PARKER OVIATT
COMP. NICHOLAS ALEXANDER MANNIX
COMP. ALDEN KENDALL WOOD

Christmas Greeting

"Each Yule-tide brings its sweet delight
Of love renewed and friendship bright,
Then heart greets heart, and hand meets hand
In sweet communion thru the land.
And every soul pours forth its prayer
That God may bless us thru the year,
This the best wish that man can send
From out my heart I to thee tend."

GEORGE T. WILEY,
Commander.
